

I'm cozy and warm, where stories unfold,
Look beneath cushions for secrets untold.

Tick-tock, tick-tock, keeping pace,
Find your next clue behind my face.

It's chilly and frozen treats await,
Open my door before it's too late.

Turn the pages for adventure and fun,
I'm hiding where your reading is done.

Where jackets hang and you'll find your shoes,
Peek inside me to get your next clue.

Splish-splash is what I hear,
Your clue awaits where water is clear.

I'm tall and green with leaves that sway,
Search near my roots to find your way.

Round and rolling, bouncy fun,
Look behind me to continue your run.

You get letters here, rain or shine,
Check this place, the egg you'll find.

With petals bright and colours bold,
Hidden among flowers, a treat you'll hold.

Swing up high and slide down low,
Find me quick—you're good to go!

I help plants grow with a sprinkle or spray,
Find me here where watering cans stay.
